Eligibility & Information:

A is for Artists Gallery of Bainbridge Island Washington invites Jewelry Artists (including students enrolled in a jewelry program at the college level) to participate. Submit up to 3 digital images @ $30/entry by July 15th (see information on application). Jury process will be completed by July 30th, and Artists whose work is accepted will be notified to mail their work to us by August 15th. Artists when sending their work, should include a return address label, postage/insurance for the return of unsold items & instructions as to which method they prefer (USPS, UPS, FedEx, etc.) at the end of the show. This venue is limited to 100 participants.

Items selected will be displayed and for sale during month of September. Artists agree to pay a 30% commission to the Gallery for sales made during this time. The Judges Award will be determined on the first Friday of September and mailed to the winning artist. Patrons Choice Award will be mailed at the end of the Show. Winning entries will be listed and pictured on the A is for Artists Gallery web site. Please see application for further information and requirements.

Criteria: Entered jewelry must be wearable, designed and executed by the accepted artist and limited to three pieces. If an artist's item sells prior to this event, or if more time is required to complete your entries, we will allow substitutions but the items must be of the same caliber as the images you submitted for the jury process in July. Actual entries are due by August 15th.

Commission: 30% on work sold during the show.

Application & Prospectus

Deadline - July 15, 2008

Submit digital images (300 dpi or above) of each item for this venue. Send to info@aisforartistsgallery.com. All entries will be juried and those selected will be on display and for sale in the Gallery for the month of September. Two cash prizes of $1000 each will be awarded (Judges & Patrons Award). At the end of the show winning entries will be listed and pictured on the Gallery website. A is for Artists Gallery will take a 30% commission on items sold during this event. At the close of this venue, your unsold items will be returned to you per the carrier you designate with your return label postage provided. The Gallery insures your work while in our possession.

I have read and agree to all specified terms and conditions set forth in the Art of Jewelry prospectus. I affirm that all submitted work is original and produced solely by myself, the applicant. I agree to allow use of my images and photographs taken during the event for promotional purposes and to allow release of my contact information for sales and promotions.
